Arvo Part Te Deum

Bruckner Te Deum (C major)

A concert of Te Deums, from the rich and immense Bruckner to the gorgeous and powerful Part. Gustav Mahler, who conducted the Bruckner work, described it as, “for the tongues of angels, heaven-blest, chastened hearts, and souls purified in the fire!” The Arvo Part Te Deum premiered in 1985. Its Estonian-born composer drew upon Renaissance polyphonic masses, Byzantine chants, and modern minimalism

Tippett A Child of Our Time

Wu the wind blows full of sand

A Child of Our Time is a brilliant and powerful oratorio written by British composer Michael Tippett in the early years of WWII. Inspired by the events surrounding the assassination in 1938 of a German diplomat by a young Jewish refugee from Poland, and the Nazi government's reaction in the form of a violent pogrom against its Jewish population—the infamous Kristallnacht. The oratorio is structured like the Bach passions but with African-American spirituals instead of chorales. Set in English.

the wind blows full of sand is a specially commissioned piece by Sam Wu, text based on the poetry of Li Po (701-762), as interpreted by Ezra Pound (1885-1972). Written for full orchestra and SATB chorus. Sam was the winner of our Emerging Composer Competition, which drew nearly 100 submissions.
